The best beach in Ontario is right here in Cobourg. Scenic views, a boardwalk, and gorgeous white sand to sink your feet in deep. All you have to do is relax. Feel the hot sun on your skin. Take a refreshing swim in calm, blue water. The true pleasure of leisure isn’t wasting a day in bed, it’s lounging somewhere beautiful that reminds you how wonderful life really is.

#ADVENTURESINCOBOURG
RIDE THE WAVES
Make the most of the white sand and lapping water on this gorgeous stretch of Lake Ontario shoreline. Paddle boards, kayaks and canoes are available for rent at Green Canoe Outfitters at 90 King St. W., 289-252-2090. And do some yoga! Try a class on the water with yoga instructor and life coach Melanie Woolsey, and her team at Om Sup, 416-399-1674. They’ll challenge your core strength with sun salutations on a stand-up paddle board.

“There’s something so intuitive and cleansing about doing yoga on the water,” Melanie says. “Don’t be afraid to fall in. You’ll get wet, that’s part of the fun!” Beginners welcome. Headstands are entirely possible.

COME SEE THE BOATS
On the waterfront trail, you can walk along the boardwalk from the beach to the Cobourg Marina, considered one of the best on Lake Ontario. Cobourg has always been a popular spot for boaters from Montreal, along the St. Lawrence, and Rochester, across the lake. A car ferry connected Rochester to Cobourg from 1905 to 1950, and American tourists came in droves for summer sun, yacht races and pavilion dances in Victoria Park.

LEARN TO SAIL
The Cobourg Yacht Club hosts boating events and offers sailing lessons. Get in touch by email: sailingschool@cobourgyachtclub.ca

BEST CATCH
Salmon top the scales, with some reaching well over 30 pounds. Ask about guides and fishing charters.
HIT THE TRAILS AND PARKS
Biking, hiking, horseback riding, skiing, snowshoeing...
Four-season calorie expenditure awaits in nearby Northumberland and Ganaraska forests. (Locals love to ATV and snowmobile here, too!) You can rent bikes in July and August through Cobourg Tourism.
GO OUT ON A LIMB
Play out your own Legend of Tarzan with Treetop Trekking Ganaraska, 855-280-0900, at the Ganaraska Forest Centre. You’ll fly across zip lines and climb on bridges, nets and swings high in the trees. Night treks are available where your headlamp shows the way.

CRAFT BREW TRAIL
Craft brewers put their heart and soul—and amazing ingredients—into every beer they brew. Visit these five stops on our self-guided route to meet the makers:

1. William Street Beer Company, Elgin Street W., Cobourg
2. Northumberland Hills Brewery, Division Street, Cobourg
3. The Bickle Farm Valley Hops, McClelland Road, north of Port Hope
4. Empire Cider Co., Old Wooler Road, Codrington
5. Church-Key Brewing Co., County Road, Campbellford

WILLIAM STREET BEER CO.
The pint-sized operation makes excellent small-batch brewed ales with a focus on local ingredients. Try brewer Sean Walpole’s signature Cliff Top Pale Ale, one that he perfected over the years at home before going pro. It combines the best of U.K. and North America, with a malty backbone and clean citrusy hop finish.

NORTHUMBERLAND HILLS BREWERY
NHB’s Maple Wheat Ale is made with award-winning maple syrup. Co-owner Rick Bailey likes to bring a fresh spin to his popular microbrews. He wasn’t always a beer drinker (and not a fan of mass-produced light beer), but now he’s passionate about the depth and taste that craft brews have to offer. Bestseller is easy-to-sip Supercontinental Ale, with its nice malt flavour and 5.5% alcohol.
CALLING ALL FOODIES
MEET AMELIA SHEFFIELD BRAY
AT THE MILL RESTAURANT & PUB

The restaurant general manager is also an event designer and advocate for local food and beer.

LOCAVORE FOCUS: When it comes to food and drink, Cobourg is making its mark. The Mill’s restaurant on the main floor and lively pub below (along with a large outdoor patio and upper deck overlooking the golf course) are proudly committed to using ingredients from surrounding farms and producers. And that’s a good thing. “Cobourg is so rich in agriculture. There’s amazing produce from our farmers and two breweries in town,” Amelia says. “Eating local where we can has a tremendous economic and environmental impact.” They use beef and pork from Osland Farm, and trout from Linwood Acres, for example.

HISTORIC CHARM: The former grist mill is a solid old building that dates back to the 1850s. “Some of the original wooden pulleys are still here, so there’s that sense of nostalgia because we are such an agricultural community.”

ON THE MENU: Chef Miguel Clarke’s southern take on classic comfort foods, like beef short ribs, schnitzel, and a house-smoked pulled pork sandwich doused in Northumberland Hills Brewery BBQ sauce. “We have the nine-hole golf course and we have really really good food.”

COME FOR SUNDAY BRUNCH: “The fried chicken and French toast is delicious! MillStone sourdough bread and house-battered chicken.”

DIETARY BONUS: Menu items are marked for gluten-free, vegetarian, vegan and 100% Ontario. “We want people to feel comfortable. You don’t have to ask, ‘do you have gluten-free items?’”

REASON TO LOVE THE JOB: “The small-town community feel. The regulars become friends, and friends are regulars.”

CULINARY TOURS

Tracey Lafleche-Gainforth will take you to some of the best Cobourg eateries on her Northumberland Culinary walking tour of the heritage core. You might sample charcuterie by Chef Andrew Stewart at 92 King, or gourmet grilled cheese on French sour dough from Doug Lawrence’s family-run MillStone Bread. A culinary bike tour adds locations like Northumberland Hills Brewery just north of downtown. To book a tour, call Tracey at 905-372-2996.

CORNELL HOUSE

Marianne Marusic, a Cobourg piano teacher and Royal Conservatory of Music examiner, has opened her Victorian home to notable chamber musicians for private concerts. (Cornell House was once occupied by 1930s stage actress Katharine Cornell, whose guests included Orson Welles and the Marx Brothers.) With the help of artistic director, composer and Cobourg resident Michael Pepa, Cornell House is now the head office of Les AMIS Concerts, showcasing internationally renowned artists in a variety of local venues.

“I’ve always been in love with music,” Marianne says. “It’s such a thrill to have the highest calibre musicians perform here.”

FAMED ARTISTIC MERITS

ART GALLERY OF NORTHUMBERLAND
The AGN is well-known for its permanent collection, which features a number of historically significant as well as contemporary Canadian artworks.

MARIE DRESSLER HOUSE MUSEUM
Birthplace of Academy Award-winning 1930s’ film star, Marie Dressler.

HENLEY ARCADE MURAL
Internationally-famed artist, Heather Cooper (of the Roots logo), created stylized scenes of Cobourg harbour and the old-fashioned bicycle and shoe-repair business that once operated on the Henley site.
Victoria Hall, beautiful and stately, was officially opened in 1860 by the Prince of Wales, the future King Edward VII. The hall is regarded as one of Ontario’s great treasures, as a noble edifice and the centre of public activity. The area was first cleared by Loyalists in the late 1700s, and grew quickly to become a hub for commerce and education. By the early 1900s, its location on Lake Ontario made it a popular spot for Americans to vacation and build opulent summer homes. Many of the grand homes still stand, and the tourism tradition continues!
STATELY MANORS

Your next stay at one of our heritage inns will give you the best of the elegant past and plush modern comforts.

MacKechnie House Bed and Breakfast was the dream home built by a woolen mill operator Stuart Mackechnie in the Greek Revival style. The gracious mansion, with its high ceilings and equally high windows, reportedly housed Scottish artillery in the 1860s.

Professional caterer and host, Cathryn Thompson, is renowned for her gourmet breakfasts and “very strong, very very fresh” coffee! Private cooking classes available.

The Woodlawn Inn, built in 1835, was originally home to town leader Ebenezer Perry. Many of the architectural details are still preserved, like the dramatic Regency-style entrance. The Della Casa family has run the inn since its 1988 restoration, and the award-winning dining room (and 3,000-bottle wine cellar) has hosted the celebrations of several generations of clientele.

“I have a real rapport with my guests,” says Stephen Della Casa, also an accredited sommelier. “It’s about making people happy...Cobourg is unique, it’s not cookie-cutter, with the water, the rolling hills, the greenery. You can have a great experience in a very special part of Ontario.”
Here are the top tips for an awesome getaway for you and the kids to get a taste of small-town life and make some memories. Best part? You can park your car and walk everywhere.

KICK OFF YOUR SHOES
Run barefoot on the powder-soft Cobourg Beach and go for a dip. There’s a splash pad, kids’ play structures and snack bar, all right there. Stay for free movies on the beach at dusk Movies on the Beach at dusk (July 15 and August 5 & 12).

BUILD A SANDCASTLE
Let the kids get dirty and dig in! See the pros make giant cartoon characters at the annual Sandcastle Festival (August 5).

GET YOUR FACE PAINTED
Have fun with magic and make-believe at Cobourg festivals. Be entertained at the Busker & Art Festival on the downtown strip (June 17 & 18) and experience the amazing live shows and a midway on the pier at the Cobourg Waterfront Festival (July 1-3).

LOOK FOR BUGS AND BUTTERFLIES
Cobourg Ecology Garden at the end of Hibernia Street is the perfect spot for bird-watching and crouching down to look for bugs. Native plants and flowers are tended by passionate organic gardeners.
EAT BUTTER TARTS
Buttery pastry, ooey-gooey sweet filling! What’s not to love about a sugar high this good? Cobourg’s Dutch Oven and Burnham Family Farm Market are two of the popular stops along the Kawarthas Northumberland Butter Tart Tour, Ontario’s biggest self-guided, year-round butter tart tour.

PICK-YOUR-OWN FRUIT
Say hello to a farmer! Berries in spring and summer, and apples, field tomatoes and pumpkins in the fall. Check out Moore Orchards and Lovshin Family Fresh Produce Farm. In the holiday season, you can cut your own Christmas tree at Barrett’s Tree Farm.

WHAT TO DO

Stroll, shop, then get to the spa! Admire the lovely gardens and tree-lined streets of Cobourg, an Ontario Communities in Bloom 2016 award-winner. Shop for vintage and reclaimed treasures at Legacy Vintage Building Materials & Antiques. Owner Sven Kraumanis “picks the bones” of buildings slated for demolition. A favourite stop for film and TV props. Have a facial or mani-pedi at Mystic Roots or City Streaks, both Aveda concept salons in town, for a little indulgence.

Go on a yoga retreat with yoga instructor and dietitian, Francesca Bonta, of Karma Lifestyle Yoga. Bust that stress and gain a new perspective with aerial yoga (where you’re suspended from the ceiling in a fabric swing), essential oils workshops, raw food treats, and a nudge from her sweet dog Zoya.

“When you’re hanging upside down, you have no choice, you have to let go,” Francesca says of experiencing yoga postures in mid-air. “There’s something profound about it that allows you to open up and release from the heart.” Beginners welcome.
THE EVENING YOU ARRIVE
Sip cocktails and eat calamari while you watch the waves at Marca on the Wharf. Or go on a retro date and see a double-feature at the Drive-In.

DAY 1
Head to the open-air Cobourg Farmers’ Market behind Victoria Hall for colourful produce, crafts and pie. Then walk the downtown to browse the shops, and fill your picnic basket at Craft Food House with Chef Z’s kale and quinoa salads. Relax in Victoria Park, or one of the lesser-known spots by the water, like Monk’s Cove, Lucas Point or the west beach. Dine on the busy patio at the Oasis Bar & Grill.
DAY 2

Bike around town and enjoy the country air! Then treat yourself to ice cream at Harbourlight Delights by the beach. Don’t forget to bring a padlock to the Love Locks bridge at Rotary Harbourfront Park where you can “lock your love” forever as per the European custom. Very sweet!

BEACH WEDDINGS

Get married on the sand with a view of the horizon! No need to hop a plane, Cobourg Beach is an incredible setting for the ceremony, with a choice of white sand or natural stone beneath your feet. Host your reception within walking distance at a heritage inn or one of the beautiful rooms in the majestic Victoria Hall.
